

Fees and Charges

Building Activity

Building Act fees and charges are calculated depending on the type of application, costs of the work involved, levies, how long it takes to process and how many inspections are required. All housing / residential, commercial, major alterations and Certificate of Acceptance require a deposit to be paid on application.

Building consents will not be issued until processing has concluded, fees and charges are calculated, and settlement of any additional fees and charges have been paid.

An estimated number of inspections will be charged for at the outset, with any additional inspections charged for at the end of the project / prior to issuing Code Compliance Certificate. Refunds may be available for any unused inspections; these are also calculated at the time of project completion.

Building Research (BRANZ), Ministry of Business Innovation and employment (MBIE) levies and insurance levies apply for building work over a certain value.

Where any building charge is inadequate to enable the recovery of the actual and reasonable costs, a further charge may be payable.

The owner is responsible for all fees and charges. If an application is withdrawn at any stage, any fees and charges incurred up to that point must still be paid. Any functions or services that are provided but are not specifically detailed in this schedule will be charged at the relevant officer charge-out rate.

All figures are GST inclusive unless expressly stated otherwise.

Building Research Levy

In addition to the Building Consent Fee, a Building Research Levy based upon $1.00 per $1,000, or part thereof acquired from the total value of building work requires payment.

Consents where building work is valued at less than $20,000 are exempt from this levy.

Building Categories

Defined by The National Building Consent Authority Competency Assessment System - June 2010
